

CALL FOR PAPERS

Innovation and Entrepreneurship for Sustainability in Natural Resource-Intensive Economies

Journal of Technology Management & Innovation
Volume 8, Issue 4 (2013)

Pablo Muñoz¹, Ewald Kibler², José Ernesto Amorós³, Soledad Parra⁴

Background

In facing the challenges of reducing detrimental environmental and societal impacts created by unsustainable business practices, the development of innovations and entrepreneurship for sustainability has gained special attention. They are recognized as the engine in the transformation of current business processes and key factors in creating sustainable prosperity (Hall et al. 2010).
